1. Where are you from? Who introduced you to HBCUs?*

I am from Glenn Dale, Maryland. My family introduced me to the concept of HBCUs.

2. Why did you choose an HBCU over a pwi?*

I always wanted to go to an HBCU but what really solidified me in choosing a HBCU was wanting to feel connected and understood. I attended a private, Christian, and predominantly white high school.

3. What is the story of your "experience" at Your HBCU given its heralded status as a stellar and prestigious institution?*

When I first came to Maryland Eastern Shore I didn't exactly fit in. I was a little shy and completely out of my element. I had only gone to all private schools so they were small and it was easy to meet everyone. Maryland Eastern was the biggest school I had attended. Everyone had different goals and mind sets. At first, I thought I had made a mistake attending and that I should just go back home and attend University of Maryland College Park. Then I convinced myself to stay for at least 2 semesters. I finally got up enough courage to go out and start meeting people. I met wonderful friend who I am still friends with and they push me to do great things. On the academic side, I feel pushed and that is a good thing. I do not just want to breeze through school I want to be challenged so I can achieve things that are beyond my limits.

4. "First time" experiences at your HBCU?*

N/A

5. Who are the professors that have impacted your life in and out of the classroom? How did they do that?*

Dr.Okpozo was my human anatomy instructor. She helped push me in class and show not to just settle for grades. That I should strive for the best I could possibly do.
