3. What is the story of your "experience" at Your HBCU given its heralded status as a stellar and prestigious institution?***

The unfortunate part of dating at an HBCU is that there are some things you go to college expecting to leave behind. Unfortunately, some things follow you, poke you, and leave their trail on you. While I did some dating, I wasn't too gung ho on going after every black girl that moved on the campus. To call it an experience would be an understatement. It was more of a jungle adventure.

4. "First time" experiences at your HBCU?***

5. Who are the professors that have impacted your life in and out of the classroom? How did they do that?***

There wasn't one professor that didn't have some kind of impact on me while at Wilberforce. No matter how good or not good they were at teaching, they taught some kind of lesson at the end of the day.
