Name : ReNeé Brown

Your HBCU : Savannah State University

Graduation Year : 2016

1. Where are you from? Who introduced you to HBCUs?*

I'm from Atlanta, Georgia, and I was introduced to HBCU's through my own curiosity and preference for a majority black school.

2. Why did you choose an HBCU over a pwi?*

My whole life I went to schools that had populations of white people that widely outnumbered minorities, and one year I went to a majority black high school and loved it. From then on I knew that's where I wanted to be.

3. What is the story of your "experience" at Your HBCU given its heralded status as a stellar and prestigious institution?*

The most known motto of my HBCU (Savannah State University) is “you can get anywhere from here.” This statement holds true, every student who graduates from Savannah State is put directly in the workforce within the major they chose prior to graduation.

4. "First time" experiences at your HBCU?*

N/A

5. Who are the professors that have impacted your life in and out of the classroom? How did they do that?*

The professors that impacted my life the most would be Dr. A. Mundrich , and Professor Fletcher - AKA “Duke Booty.” (if you don’t know who he is you should google him, literally, you’ll be surprised at who he is!). Dr. Mundrich Sparks the interest of the student and doesn’t make the class overly difficult because “that’s how college is supposed to be” yea right. He’s an awesome professor and every time I leave my lecture, I always have a thousand entrepreneurial ideas written down.
